Teaching and Learning Support Assistants

We are looking for candidates who are experienced in working with children and supporting their learning needs. Brookfield is a true community primary school in the London borough of Camden. For those looking to work in a welcoming inner city Primary school with a vibrant, arts centred learning focus, we are the school for you.

Your opportunity

The Teaching Assistant role will include responsibilities including supporting children's learning, assisting class teachers, preparing resources and undertaking playground duties. You will be expected to uphold the policies of the school and support the school ethos, as well as bringing with you a desire to work as part of a team for the benefit of pupils. This would be ideal for an experienced teaching assistant, someone with previous experience in early years education or someone with a passion for supporting children with special educational needs. As well as classroom teaching assistants, we are also looking for candidates to join our learning support team, improving the chances of pupils with special educational needs at Brookfield. We are particularly keen to hear from people with Forest School experience and training and those who are open to this approach to outdoor learning.

As part of Brookfield, you will join a community of staff who are creative, dedicated and wonderful to work with. With regular progression opportunities and outstanding CPD for support staff, there will be opportunities to seek high quality training and work in Camden, one of the leading education authorities in the country.

Yours, Laurel
