Discover, explore and engage in the world of education and teaching as you become a key contributor to the country's education recovery from COVID-19, as part of the government-funded National Tutoring Programme.

Make a difference as an Academic Mentor through tailored one-to-one and small group tuition for pupils whose education has been most impacted by the pandemic and help them reach their full potential. As an Academic Mentor you will be a critical member of the school team, working alongside the pupils' teacher to provide 15-hour blocks of tuition for those who need it most.

In conjunction with the National Tutoring Programme, the Headteacher and Governors are seeking to appoint an academic mentor

Required Qualifications:

- Minimum of three A-levels at A*- C grade (or equivalent)
- Minimum of a grade 4 in English and Maths at GCSE level

Responsibilities of the role:

- Working with Senior Leadership Team (SLT) in the school to identify the support each pupil needs
- Identify learning gaps and help create bespoke intervention programmes for pupils
- Developing and delivering engaging sessions with clear learning objectives, considering any barriers to learning or additional needs
- Delivering measurable outcomes from each session to track progress

Successful candidates will:

- Be able to model excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Have a good understanding of child development and learning
- Have knowledge and understanding of special educational needs including Autism
- A positive attitude, patience and resilience
- Be flexible and able to adapt to the needs of children throughout the primary age range
- Show commitment to the values and ethos of the school
- Be committed to raising standards
- Be able to liaise closely with teachers, support staff, parents and the wider community
- Be willing to run an after school club for an additional hour once a week

We can offer:

- An inclusive and caring ethos
- Lots of exciting and creative learning opportunities through F.A.B. (Fantastic Arts at Brookfield)
- A committed and dedicated staff
- Enthusiastic and friendly children and parents
