

Camden parents Forum will be relaunching on February 22nd at ST Pancras community association 10:00—11:30.

Camden Parents Forum is open to all parents and carers in Camden and meets once a month.

By joining The Parent Forum, you will be able to add your voice and become part of the parent group, sharing lived experiences, having your views heard and becoming part of a group of parents and carers who are there to support each other.

So, if you have a couple of hours to spare once a month, would like to meet other parents and carers in Camden, take part in training opportunities and workshops, share your ideas and knowledge and start to build a network of support and make positive changes for you and your community, please come along, we would love to have you.
